And, i had faced a technical issue during my exam, I had lost my Wi-Fi connection for 2-3 minutes. I had also mentioned all of this in detailed in the mail. But, I got a reply saying only exam team can confirm and the timeframe cannot be given to when the decision will be made. I have an idea, till when can i expect a reply in such cases. Can we need to discuss and send the feedback about the process, at least any regulation relating to deadline for processing result. Under the Ts & Cs that you have accepted, ACCA has the right to withhold exam results pending investigations. 20Terms%20%20Conditions%20v.1.0.pdf There is no deadline for resolving as that depends on each investigation it can be a few months or more than a year. I recommend that you sit tight and comply promptly and courteously with all requests for information. Thank you for sharing the information and your advice. Kim Smith, I fully understand and respect ACCAs right to conduct investigations to ensure transparency and fairness in the examination process. I have maintained a calm and positive attitude, ready to cooperate and provide any information ACCA requires. However, I believe that, given the scale and reputation of a large organization like ACCA, an investigation extending beyond a year could significantly impact candidates study plans and careers. I hope ACCA will consider expediting the investigation process and providing updates to affected candidates. This would not only alleviate concerns but also demonstrate a commitment to candidate welfare. No any update. So tired with ACCA process as well. I really like your post, its really great.
