It's a beautiful day in this neighborhood song

Spotify, a service to transform your musical listening habits into public content, analyzed thousands of themed users' playlists on love, sex, heartache, or hate Valentine's Day, and made four top-10 playlists of the most commonly present songs. Topping the playlist "Global Love Songs" is "Perfect" by Ed Sheeren and now you feel old. "Top Global Sex Songs" begins with "Earned It" from The Weeknd from Fifty Shades of Grey; "Top Global Heartache Songs" begins with "Too Good at Goodbyes" by Sam Smith. Honestly, the only playlist that seems completely familiar to us is the anti-Valentine one, surmounted by TLC's "No Scrubs". Check the full track list that Spotify has built from your data, and tell us what is missing. Actually, we did a collaborative Spotify playlist that combines all themes. Go ahead and add your songs. (Just follow the playlist, and you can drag any song to its title on the left column.) It will be an emotional roller coaster of love and sex and pain, so please prepare to break down crying to your computer. Franz Walderdorff, Jeremy Nelson, Nicolas Moore All you need is the right mascara and these tips from makeup artist Dick Page 1. Start curling the eyelashes. Gently pinch the eyelashes to the roots and then move along the length, making pulsating as squeeze while you go. (The Curler of Shu Uemura Eye Mesh is the gold standard, and also comes in 24 carat real gold, if you feel fancy. 12. Apply the mascara by sliding the wand back and forth to the roots to deposit as much as possible before pulling the wand straight.3. To make the eyelashes look long and separate, apply three mascara coats, but comb through the mascara while it is still wet with a clean and dry spool brush. Choose a shaver with five blades, such as the Gillette Venus Embrace Razor. Once you are in the shower or in the bathroom, wait three minutes for hot water to soften your hair. Instead of soap (intase the razor), use a shaving cream or gel (creates a smooth barrier between the skin and the blades). In a pinch, the hair conditioner or a creamy body wash can work. For legs: Start over the ankle and work upwards in six-inch sections. Rinse the razor between each stroke. To get knees and ankles, pull the taut skin with one hand and slip the shaver with the other. For arms: Shaving at different angles, since the hair grows every way. Move the blade upwards, then downwards, then on the other side, rinsing it clean and relaxing between strokes. For the bikini line: avoid irritation by aggregating the blade towards hair growth and gently shaving with theDon't underestimate how much it can make you look like a blur. A cream formula looks the most natural, goes on pure, and is easy to mix. To find your best shadow, gently pinch your cheeks and match the blush to the color you get. Some We Love: For Pale Skin: Revlon Revlon Cream a Rosy Glow, BECCA CRAÁme Blush in Turkish Rosefor Skin Medium: CoverGirl and Olay Simply ageless Blush in Berry Berry, Nars Blush cream in Constantinople for dark skin: Maybelline New York Dream Mousse Blush in Soft Plum, Black Dream Blush in retro rouge1. Exfoliate: Slather on a lip balm with a touch of alpinate hydroxic acid, such as El Lip Refining Solutions.2. Moisturizes: Apply a creamy balm containing petrolate, shea butter, hyaluronic acid, dimethicone or ceramides. (Try the ultra rich lip balm from Clark Botanicals, or Jack Black Intense Therapy Balsam Balm SPF 25). Avoid waxy formulas (their ingredients cannot penetrate) and anything heavily flavored or fragrant (which can recover even worse).3. Add Color: Try a colored balm like the Fresh Sugar Treatment RosÁA© Tinted lip Treatment SPF 15, the Bees of Burt Shimmer Shimmer, or Benefit Benefit Balm Lip Balm SPF 15. Or if these are too domestic, take a look at our favorite far-sighted lip colors. Fragrance on the wrist points, which emit heat and release perfume: wrists, inner elbows, temples, hollow neck, behind the ears and behind the knees. Apply no more than two drops of perfume, three sprays of Eau de Parfum and four strokes of Eau de Toilette. And since, over time, you become desensitized to the smell of a fragrance, they resist the urge to pile it up and stick to the amount you used when you wore the fragrance. For a list of perfumes that almost universally evoke romance, click here. For smooth and luminous skin everywhere, switch from your regular lotion and apply a slightly scented body oil. OUR Favourites: NARS Monoa Body Glow II, which is scented with the Tahitian Tiare flower, a type of Gardenia; Lightweight neutral sesame oil clean; And Lisa Hoffman Spa Shower Oil Shower, with bergamot and ginger. It is nothing romantic to get a bikini wax. But the barshop of Cindy, the owner of the all-naked spa in New York City, is here to explain how to make the most of it: Book: Your hair should be long enough - about a quarter of an inch" for wax to work. Book your appointment accordingly, about every two or four weeks. Looking for the skin: for the closest wax, wipe out with a salicylic acid-containing body wash before your appointment, but do not apply any lotion. Earn the pain: pop two advil an hour before your wax. Ask the waxer to tackle small areas at a time. And if you get red bumps afterwards, apply aloe lotion cream or hydrocortisone cream. The skin on the chest and cleavage has few oil glands and is more susceptible to brown spots. Expect also to be more sensitive, so while your favorite anti-aging cream Use it here only twice a week. Are you planning to show off a little skin? Sweeping a powder of the illuminating body, such as the Stila is good to shine on the collarbones. A beautiful day in the neighborhood star "America", Dad, Tom HanksÁ as the popular TV host Kid's Fred Rogers. The critics loved the movie and the scooters recorded their glowing reviews on social media. media. How did the nice movie do at the box office this Thanksgiving weekend, put up against Disney juggernaut Frozen 2, as well as star-studded action movies? How did 'A nice day in the neighborhood' do at the box office during the weekend of Thanksgiving? Forbes reported that a nice day in the neighborhood made $35.7 million in its first ten days in theaters. The film made $7.3 million for Thanksgiving weekend. Frozen 2 took the best place for the weekend of office holiday, surprising nobody. However, the sequel Disney also broke records, inn "an estimated $124 million throughout the five-day weekend," Entertainment Weekly reported. "It doesn't only make them earn their winning place for the holiday weekend, it also broke the record for the biggest weekend of Gross Thanksgiving of all time," they wrote. The cast of a beautiful day in the district | GP Images/Getty Images for TIFF Knives Out, the thriller directed by Rian Johnson, came second place for the holiday, gross $42 million its opening weekend. The return film Ford v Ferrari, starring Matt Damon and Christian Bale, made $19 million, putting it third for Thanksgiving weekend. When the time of the film collides; 'A Beautiful Day' versus 'Frozen 2', 'Knives Out' Forbes contributor Scott Mendelson argued that because a nice day was standing against frozen 2 and Knives Out at the box office, the film "is playing as Wonder (-17% after a launch of $33 million in 2017) and The Blind Side (+17% after a launch of $34 million). Both these films, well-being stories about the power of kindness, "open against alleged mega-movies (Justice League and The Twilight Saga: New Moon) and acted out during the holiday," Mendelson wrote. However, the film Mr. Rogers has Oscar's buzz and could collect in interest as season prizes kicking in the march. Tom Hanks-led's film is getting good reviews from both viewers and critics A nice day in the neighborhood currently has a 96% Rotten Tomatoes rating. Rogers' widow, Joanne Rogers, also loved the film - and perhaps is the most important member of the film. "This script was perfect," said Joanne Rogers to journalists in a film screening. "We trusted them." One of Mrs. Rogers' favorite moments from the film was "when Lloyd Vogel's wife discovers that her husband is about to interview Mr. Rogers," and "says not to spoil his childhood memory of Mr. Rogers." Rita Wilson and Joanne Rogers, Fred Rogers' widow | Paul Bruinoope/Patrick McMullan via Getty Images Movie-goers led to Twitter and Instagram too. A tweeter called a nice day in the neighborhood "exactly what I wanted it to be." "What a wonderful movie on my hero!they wrote. It seems that most of everyone else in agreement, and with Hanks at the helm, we are not surprised. The film gushed over Tom Hanks as Mr. Rogers Joanne Rogers also told the press that Fred Rogers had seen seen Iconic film Forrest GumpÁe more times. And every time he looked at it he learned something new, he said. Rogers couldn't believe Hanks wanted to play her late husband on a nice day in the neighborhood. Is it 'It was like, is it' you're kidding? Tom hanks was Fred's favorite actor. And I didn't know until recently, they were seven cousins. ÁTom Hanks and Matthew Rhys | V and Anderson/Wireidage HanksÁe Áe Áe A Beautiful Day Co-Star, Matthew Rhys, said that the weekly entertainment is for Hank's performance as Mr. Rogers. Rhys plays a magazine writer named Lloyd Vogel interviewing Mr. Rogers. "I just had this moment", said Rhys. Apparently, hanks is Á - Á was just doing this little piece of walk, and then there's something he did with his hands. And then I went alone, "Oh my God! "We can only hope that the box office in the end reflects all the positive vibes that clearly surround a beautiful day in the neighborhood.
