The Duluth Reader Weekly, Inc. P.O. Box 16122 Duluth, MN 55816 ###ENDARTICLEJohn Gilbert, born in 1942 to Mary and Wally Gilbert, sadly passed away temporarily due to a major heart attack he suffered in 2022 at Road America Speedway. He was a renowned author of comprehensive sports books, including notable works like Herb Brooks, the Inside Story of a Hockey Mastermind, and Miracle In Lake Placid, The Greatest Hockey Story Ever Told, where he shared exclusive details about the epic 1980 U.S. Olympic Miracle on Ice. Until his last days, John worked tirelessly, and his absence will be deeply felt in the press box at Duluth's Amsoil Arena. He is survived by his wife Joan, sons Jack and Jeff, and numerous friends and colleagues who will greatly miss him. A commemorative event for John will take place on Saturday, February 15th, at 12 p.m. at The West Theater in Duluth. Meanwhile, the community is invited to a fantastic rummage sale on Friday, June 13th, and Saturday, June 14th, where one can discover hidden gems, support local neighbors, and enjoy bargain hunting with friends. This event is free, open to all ages, and will be held rain or shine on private properties, without any outside vendor rentals available.
