

I'm not a bot

This common purpose can be lovingly, joyfully, creatively and effectively carried out in multiple ways, certainly not limited to the few words below. In fact, God brings unique people and unique gifts together to bring about His Kingdom on earth one person, one heart, one soul at a time. Join us in finding, and making your place through: caring for each other and caring for our neighboursharing your story and sharing His storydoing all the good we can, in all the ways we can, for as long as we can through the power of God's loveceiving and responding to God's love, by the example and teachings of Christ, and enabled by the Holy Spirit The Leadership Pillar has been meeting and discussing the future of our church pillars and other areas where our church has a need for service. One thing is for certain. 1stChurch needs YOU! If you are already serving our church either with pillar service or time spent serving in other ways, we want to thank you for all you are doing. There a link to a survey for all members and non-members who attend 1stChurch. This "questionnaire" will help identify your current spiritual gifts and help to find where your gifts may help serve our church in accordance with the gifts which God has blessed us. We ask that you complete this (either electronically or hard copy) and return to our church office. If you would like to email your results, please send completed to . We thank you for all you CAN do! JODIE IHFEASSOCIATE PASTOR: REV. GARY IHFEASSOCIATE PASTOR: REV. STEVE REIS On Sunday May 18, a couple of sheep found their way to Messy Church. Pastors Jodie, Gary and Steve along with Katie Uelhof and other leaders had activities to help participants worship in a new way. Join us in June on the third Sunday for the next Messy Church! Bree Rhea, along with Pastors Jodie, Gary and Steve took a moment to recognize, pray for and bless the seniors present this morning. A complete list of high school and college graduates is included in the bulletin insert (the button is listed above with the livestream recording). Whether it's weather, or COVID, or any other reason you cannot come to Sunday school in person, you are invited to join the in-person Pathfinder's class online via Google Meet for a time of announcements, prayer concerns and a lesson. We can send an email link to you each week with the link for a computer or a phone. Email the church office at to request an email link. The class would like to meet you! If your church plans to assemble kits, they may be delivered to the Three Rivers District Ministry Center. It is always a good idea to call ahead of time to make certain someone is in the office to accept your delivery.
