Switching between BTS and MRT is possible to change from BTS to MRT at intersection stations: just exit one station and walk into the other. In the end it will be extended with another station, Prajadhikop. Bangkok River Ferries You can change from BTS to take a river ferry to Saphan Taksin BTS station. Airport Rail Link (Red Line) runs from Suvarnabhumi Airport to Phaya Thai BTS Station. The dark green Silom line from Bang Wa to the National Stadium. There is also the Gold Line, which opened in December 2020. From the arrivals area to Suvarnabhumi Airport, follow the signs to the lower levels of the airport. Bangkok Area Guide Bangkok has many areas of interest for tourists, see our quick guides for each area of Bangkok to help you get an idea of what you can find in each district. Airport Rail Link takes you to Phaya Thai BTS station. This page was last updated on January 13, 2021 How to use the Bangkok Skytrain and MRT The Bangkok Skytrain (known as BTS) and the Bangkok Metro (known as MRT) are the two most convenient ways to travel to Bangkok. Then you can leave the station to stay in the Phaya Thai area, or buy a ticket to go on the BTS train system and continue towards your final destination. Sanam Chai is also very close to the Grand Palace and Wat Po in the royal island of Rattanakosin and on the shore of Bangkok. Buying tickets for the Skytrain AeHow to skip queues You can buy a BTS prepaid card online to avoid having to queue to buy a ticket at the station. The nearest MRT station to Khao San Road is Sanam Chai MRT. There is a third network, the Airport Rail Link (ARL) which is also independent and requires a ticket. BTS and MRT are independent transport networks. The Gold Line currently has two stops, stops, to Klong San. It connects the Silom line to the Icon Siam shopping mall. The river ferry has numerous stops for tourists, Tha Tien is as helpful as Á right from the Grand Palace and Phra Athit pier is right from Khao San Road (a five minute walk).: Book an airport transfer to take you hassle-free directly from the airport to your hotel with the driver who will meet you in Arrival. There you can get on the train. Suvarnabhumi Airport to Bangkok MRT You can go directly from Suvarnabhumi Airport to Bangkok city centre using the Airport Rail Link. This means that you need to buy separate tickets if you switch between the two systems. Bangkok Skytrain Lines AND Bangkok MRT Lines There are currently 2 main Skytrain lines: the light green line of Sukhumvit running from Khu Khot to Kheha. This new MRT stop gives tourists easy access to Bangkok's attractions such as the Grand Palace and Wat Po Temple inside the historic Royal Island of Rattanakosin and also Bangkok's Riverside. This is the MRT line of most interest for tourists as it covers some central locations. Free cancellations also. Make sure you don't forget to bring any essentials with our complete packing list for Thailand.: Secure your travels with World Nomads - make sure you're covered to protect both your health and your belongings. A real time saver. You pay when you get out. You can purchase the BTS Rabbit card online at Klook and pick it up at Suvarnabhumi Airport on arrival. You can currently use the same ticket on both networks. Save real time because the BTS system is very busy with long queues.: With Skyscanner you can find the cheapest flight to Bangkok - in a search we will show you the prices and schedules of flights operated by different airlines. Consult our Itineraries of for ideas on where to go and what to do. World Nomads allows you to buy insurance online quickly and easily. the purple line MRT going from Tao Poon to Khlong Khlong Phai above all the outskirts of Bangkok.
