However, statistics have it that Americans know are more and more diverse and varied. Hamber has always remained upstairs in the minds of Americans, and the reason for this longevity is most of the time attributed to the widespread appeal of him. First, our designer and implementation of strict financial controls, which will be very crucial, since the restaurant industry is quite competitive. Second, we will offer high quality fresh and healthy foods to clearly highlight our competition in San Diego. . We have already implemented effective and specific marketing campaigns to support the opening of the restaurant. Our weakness according to the SWOT analysis will be the time when it will take you to the people of San Diego know where we are and what we offer. We plan to create an optimized website to capture local users and also establish a strong presence of social networks to easily promote sales. Americans greatly live in hamburgers and are known that they are going through the best. Statistics show that almost 80% of consumers eat at rapid food restaurants at least once a month, and 34% of children in the US. UU Eat rapid food all day. . And that is not to include the massive number of people who eat at rapid casual restaurants, now there is a food that represents patriotism and festivity. We plan to set three operating units within the hamburger of the Star: Production, sales and marketing, and general and administrative unit. The Burger production unit will involve our customer service specialists, who will take care of our driving and mobile restaurants and attend the Needs of our customers. They are always present at large family gatherings, the fourth of July and the celebrations of the day of memories. Burgers' mixtures are all the range that extends more from the traditional mandrel, to include the cut rib, the shell, the tixil, the rib, the flank and much more. The report has it that 2018 is the year for everything from giant and premium hamburgers for and mini-portion, from daring Mexican and Asian flavors to Koreans, Greeks, Cajun, and more. These requirements we believe that they will vary according to the location, but we have a solid relationship through Mr. Sampson Shepard with the Chamber of Commerce and the Health Department of the State and we plan to remain on the right side of the law. We have put plans to obtain our commercial license, which legally allows us to make sales and collect the sales tax, and a food management certification, which we have acquired. At Star Burger we plan to provide a significant value of the community for the sponsorship of our business. Our impulse will be very simple, amazing and striking. We also plan to implement a low-cost advertising / promotional campaign that can involve driving time radio, but not much more. We also decided to obtain our SWOT analysis, which gives the light our strengths and threats in the industry. The days of simple hamburger with cheese with lettuce, tomato and ketchup have gone for a long time. To achieve this goal, we plan to do the following: Star Burger will spend $ 1,200 per month in public relations services for next year. Our Star Burger plan is to sell 100 membership units to family members, friends and angel investors. Each Membership Unit in Star Burger has a price of $ 3,087 with a minimum of five units with Membership Certificate, or a minimum investment of $ 61,740 per investor. Hamburger eatomizes the perfect vehicle to adapt to new trends and international flavors. We believe that these facilities will be designed to manage the two-sided traffic and hamburgers and smatther designed by the client, especially sorted by the customer in less time than when they visit other businesses. Star hamburger expects to give people San Diego with quality products and an extensive menu of delicious articles, to ensure that we obtain our customers' loyalty, as well as good advertising coverage and media support. We decided to become a cafeteria of conduction between the mountains, mountains. Several million dollars through an initial public or private offer that would allow Star Burger to open fifteen to twenty installations per year in all metropolitan communities in the north, the Midwest and South. Star Burger will be recorded as a limited liability corporation, but all members are for now, the actions will be owned by Sampson and Nicky Shepard, and we also plan to take advantage of a part of the actions to raise capital. From the beginning, the hamburgers have been an American Staple Snack. Hamber's restaurants do not need to do anything more than really good hamburgers and really good fries. While our captive consumer market audience would include those who are tied to a campus environment, or in a restricted entry environment that does not entitle free circulation. This will include the high school and university campuses, where there is limited time between the classes, and the corporate campuses where the restrictions of the same time are involved as special events, such as carnivals, fairs or festivals, where there is an admission price To enter the door, but leave, mean another admission fee, or where refreshments are an integral part of the festivities. Our target market in Star Burger will also be the mobile person who has more money than time, and an excellent taste for food choice, but there is no time to prepare them. There are important competitive competences in the STAR hamburger in many ways. When they are opened for the first time, we plan to create a local press release, run great opening deals to attract potential customers, and even invite local food bloggers to come to try a free meal in exchange for a review. The sustainability and the expansion strategy, in Star Burger, believe that as Of time and seasons, we will offer products that improve sales and meet the wishes of our customers. In Star Burger we hired a business consultant to do this analysis because we believe that an external company would not compromise the and possibilities of stellar burgers in the industry. We were able to notice our commercial strengths, weakness, opportunities and also the threats that we are probably going to be exposed in the industry and our commercial location. Hamburger franchises have been extended by the United States and have continued to explore innovative ways to convert their customers into loyal hamburgers. If yes, here is a complete sample of the business business business template of hamburger hamburgers and a feasibility report that you can use free to start. But with our labor force and unique plans, we have everything necessary to dominate the industry and assume enough market participation. Market analysis Fuels in this new era a indulgent and exclusive with a variety of ingredients, including goat cheese, truffle oil, foie gras, foils, jams, spinach spinach, havarti, bacon confit and other healthy covers and more. The second or second place, 42% of consumers, classified in the line. In Star Burger we have established plans to increase our income, which may include publishing specials in high-profit articles in the transmission window. At Star Burger we plan to start advertising even before opening our stores, at least to make sure our brand is known. In fact, the opportunities available for Star Burger are unlimited. Clearly summarizes the result of our SWOT analysis; Our detailed Dafo analysis has identified three keys that will be fundamental for our success in Star Burger. We have hired an insurance lawyer to help us get property insurance, which will help protect our building and surrounding property, providing fire coverage, hail or damage It is possible that people do not always have time to cook due to Your schedule, and you will always decide to take a hamburger and a cup of lemonade or café on your way to work. Our threat in Star Burger is the fact that we are competing with restaurants already established in San Diego, California, and there are also other entrepreneurs who are probably going to launch similar businesses within the location of our business. We hope to raise our start fund through the following ways: generate part of the start "up capital of personal savings and sell to StocksSource for soft members of the family members and the general Families Fund of Angel Investors:note. We have been able to raise $ 200,000 from the personal savings of our founders and we are almost about to complete the money needed as the capital of a reliable nail investor with one eye for startup companies.14. This couple has a combined 25-year experience in the food and hamburger industry, and they hope to build a successful business. So, only because it is running a hamburger restaurant does not mean that your food should be simple or simple. Star Burger will offer the best customer service; No client will leave dissatisfied. Our business structure, in Star Burger Plan to establish a business structure that is transparent and simple, since most of our staff will be involved in production and there will be a Tale restaurant. The third year, with the addition of such a significant number of points of sale, we will see an increase in sales at $ 3,765,215. Strategy strategy and brand sales with so many franchises of independent hamburgers and restaurants already open, marketing is one of the most important aspects of a hamburger opening, restaurant. The industry is currently enjoying an era of gourmet burgers and profiles of infinite flavor. We plan Use of a system that is completely new in the industry to provide excellent services and products conveniently and efficiently. The hamburger hamburger will provide her With the opportunity to drive and place your order of hamburgers and smandyes well prepared from different flavors and ingredients. We plan to open our first location in the second month of this plan and be fully operational from the 1st day of November, and our second open trip will open six months after. We will also add two Drive-through locations of our second year and, seven additional facilities by car in our third year. We have plans to ensure that regardless of the number of purchased stock units, Sampson and Nicky Shepard will maintain the property of not less than 51% of the star hamburger.3. Our products and service service services is a Hamburger in San Diego and an assorted Sandwich Restaurant that serves during the hour of lunch hour, as well as at night. Our price strategy has not returned to the promise of not leaving any unreacted stone in our search to achieve our business goal. Burger's restaurant formats range from rapid food to full service. We headed to Star Burger Plan to deploy a mobile unit in the fourth quarter of the first fiscal year. Regardless of its dietary restriction, there is a hamburger that adapts communally to your appeal. We believe that our price will be comparable to competition in the market, but with the value-added feature of instant service and convenience, conducting and convenience. Our payment option in Star Burger will be all included and acceptable because we understand that different people prefer the different payment options. Implement a second and a third mobile unit within our second fiscal year. In our detailed research and analyzes, we hope to promote the income of the part of the trade of our website, where you will sell the t-shirts Star hamburger, sweatshirts, and attract new demographic information of organizations, and analyze the volume of the transactions generated by customer purchases, prioritizes and approaches the new partners, and business opportunities and aldvals, executes and evaluate new plans to increase sales sites, star hamburger in meetings in meetings Strategies increase sales and growth of sales and growth of the star Burgerdistrict and Fa Cantensis Managermonitor P&L, reports for each store and develop effective ways to complete any gaps between real performance and hamburger projections. From the star prioritize the performance problems of stores to ensure that issues that directly affect profitability are immediately addressed, immediately address your period of fulfillment of corporate or local policy. , the state and federal law as coach to the managers of the store and as a resource for each store employee to help inspire Successcustomer Service Specialistssites that all contacts with the client (email, the center of Weit-in, Sms o They provide the customer with the customer service experience of the highest level interaction of levels with customers in the phone, use every opportunity to build the customer's interest in the hamburger product pastels of the Star, the care of administrative duties assigned by the store manager in an effective and timely manner that remains average of any new new In Star Burger, promotional campaigns, etc. As a company that wants to become a market leader in the United States, we will focus our energy by working with customers to develop new mixtures and visions8. These Delis serve in a very basic and standard manner: In general, sliced dried meats. But we, in Star Burger, know that with the only offers we bring, we can dominate the market, especially with a company that can provide a substantial value proposal where a customer does not have to find a place of parking, exit the vehicle. , Online to order, wait for the hamburger to occur, pay a higher price for the average product, find a place to sit down, clean the previous client disaster, then enjoy your lemonade or café. . that 's If they have a lot of time to spend. The business concept of Burger Burger is to establish a restaurant that I gave a client the opportunity to drive, place the order, receive a high quality product at a competitive price, and move away, without spending a lot of time, and Energia. All you need is flesh, buns and fresh ingredients, and can make a wonderful hamburger in minutes, while other restaurants may need several minutes to prepare and serve your dishes. With the years, the hamburger restaurants have improved. We will also offer refreshments, baking pastries and other clothing. In the Hamburger Plan Star Burger to reach our audience directed by deploying the driving facilities and mobile restaurants to meet the various investigations of the people of San Diego, California. People who do not eat meat can try a juicy chicken hamburger. If you are a fishing, you will love a salmon hamburger. We also planned that during the summer months, we will subsidize the drinks Like lemonade, as well as soft drinks, and other cold drinks. In Star Burger they have taken our time to investigate our local regulatory agencies and what licenses we need. Our bank account numbers will be available on our website and promotional materials. Promotional Customers who may want to deposit cash or transfer online for our service.13. Travelers are defined as one or more individuals in a motorized vehicle traveling from the point "" to point", "The highest concentration of the star hamburger will be on travelers who are directed towards or from work , or those who leave at their lunch. We have taken our time to strategically design our business to access both markets. Our goal in Star Burger is to provide sufficient income to be able to direct our business and move on with our charity aspect . We would operate the weekdays of 9-7 pm. Okay, so we have considered all the requirements to start a Burger restaurant. The people who perform their daily activities and most of the time, tend not to discover the new business in The city unless the business establishes a direct marketing plan. We will also offer workers compensate insurance to provide tranquility to management and our employees, since E Help cover the medical bills that may arise from employee injuries. The pulse supports will be manufactured through the Construction of Intel. We hope that this type of policy covers the expensive commercial cooking equipment, so we can replace the pieces damaged in covered circumstances. We also plan to obtain a civil liability insurance, since it covers the legal fees and any damage that can be granted as a result of a legal action against our business or injuries. They are quite easy to do and do not take a long time to prepare. Then, let's go to the business planning section. Why are a business of hamburgers' restaurants start? In general, hamburger restaurants are franchised chains and franchisees They mainly sell hamburgers, but they can also sell alcohol and other beverages. We also plan to offer our customers lemonade, cafés, tá © s and other personalized drinks to go down with our burgers and unique sandwiches. We have also obtained the necessary permissions for the construction and we are also waiting for an inspection of the Department of Health. In Star Burger, it also includes the importance of insurance for our business. We have intended to raise awareness and carry out product information insertions, reviews, etc. We plan to experiment with different stations, maintaining careful follow-up of the results. Given the timelessness of this all-American classic, it is not surprising that the hamburger is stopped as one of the few students of the few "test-proof" in the United States. But keep in mind that with the United States fight against obesity. , E-coli's concerns, crazy cow disease and the recent GO-GREEN campaign, the hamburger industry has its own part of challenges and threats. Then there are the products we plan to offer our customers: Gourmet Hamburgers Classic: Cheese, lettuce, tomato and bbbby bacon burgers: Barbecue sauce, bacon, cheese and hamburgers of Califegicalifornia Fried or fried: all Classic ingredients and hamburgers inspired by avocado. : Lettuce, tomato, piñana and sauté de mushroomsavory veggie hamburgers: patty veggie, lettuce, tomato, grilled onions, and Sauté de Mushroomsuper Hamburgers spicy: spicy meat, spicy May, Jalape Á ± OS, and his choice Burgerssandwiches CheeseSalmon Burgerssandwiches with filling options: Tofu Pate, Falafel, Hummus, Baba Ganouj, Tabouli, Turkey, Ham, Chicken, Pesto, Assorted Vegetables and Beverages for Assorted Cheese: Lemonade, Cafés, Mixed Tés and Refreshments4. Burger will also establish good business relationships with schools, beneficial organizations and corporations to provide significant free publicity due to our community support program. We believe that if we give charitable contributions to these institutions, they will get the word word For your students / faculty / employees about Star Burger. We also plan to take advantage of the use of mouth-mouth advertising method, which is the best advertising program that any business organization can use. Due to our goal of establishing a unique hamburger restaurant in the United States, we take our time to present the various roles of our employees and what we need, and include: Executive Director of Operations Official Financial Information Operations Marketing District Director and Institutions Manager Service Specialistscleaners5. The communication means in San Diego will be more than willing to promote the charitable parts of Star Burger and give us the opportunity of more exposure every moment that Star Burger contributes to charity. The Internet is a powerful marketing tool that in Star Burger can not afford overlooked. International flavors are hot and growing, and hamburger is the perfect vehicle to test and transport many flavors. The report also has the restaurants to be reinforcing the menu language to highlight grams of protein and add protein reinforcements such as Pastrami, Bacon and Pepperoni, in addition to including options wrapped in lettuce to increase the relevant protein to carbohydrates . Online with the more protein trend, the eggs are overcoming many hamburgers for 2018. Our second year will see increase sales at $ 1,085,430. These are the payment options that we will put on the disposition of our clients; Payment for cash through the beach of Point of Sale (POS) through the online bank transfer (online payment portal) Payment through Mobile Money WE We have also chosen Banking platforms that will help us achieve our plans with few or no problem. The food industry and It is a recession-proof industry that will always continue to grow because people will always want food, as it helps us stay alive and healthy. In Star Burger we have carried out extensive research and we have presented how we have the intention of spending our startup. Generation of Startup Capital for Star Burger Star Burger will be established as a Limited Liability Company with Sampson and Nicky Shepard as their owners. Sales Forecaststar Burger will open its doors for business by having two operating drive locations. With a hamburger business, you do not have to worry about limiting your market only to meat lovers, as there are many excellent vegetarian opanadats that hit men everywhere that will not consume any vegetable lover. To see lamb hamburgers, pork burgers and even bison hamburgers. That is why we will provide our products in the most convenient and efficient way available, either in one of our two-sided entry stores, or in one of our mobile restaurants. This will give you an advantage over our competitors because customers will not need to find a parking place, wait in a long row, jockey for a seat and clean the disaster left by previous patron. We have analyzed and written a marketing plan for sample hamburger restaurants driven by marketing ideas of processable guerrillas for hamburger restaurants. We believe that a collection of school funds Or our other charity programs will generate a fair amount of advertising for only and, perhaps, minimize "or even eliminate, the need for a publicist. Hamburger of all times that feel sure that dressing articles and supplies are not exhausted from the assignment of the CEO. 6. Swot AnimeSurgo Go in Star Burger is to create an R this "nico that see the need of the people. We will attract 35% of new customers to the year after the second year and achieve profitability at the end of the second year. The advertising and advertising strategy of the Plan in Star Burger is to gather enough brand awareness to take advantage of products in other regions and obtain consultations of possible inventors. We, in Star Burger, understood this, so we will place our driving stands in business places of very high visibility and a great ease of access. Our restaurants and positions will be located on routes of close talk and near the commercial facilities, so in terms of attracting customers who are going to or from work, or while they are in sight, or in a shopping expedition. Our minor restaurant and equipment will be supplied by wild guarantee. They include rose food that takes the form of Traditional such as McDonald's, Burger King and Wendy's, as well as healthier alternatives such as the subway. These factors may include our location, the size of the business that we want to start I.E. The number of et al, and, of course, the state of the economy as to when we try to start the business.
