The compilation of all content on this website is our exclusive property and our affiliates. You may not systematically extract and/or re - utilise parts of the contents of our site without our express written consent. In particular, you may not utilise any data mining, robots, or similar data gathering and extraction tools to extract (whether once or many times) for re - utilisation of any substantial parts of this website, without our express written consent. Our site and its URL, our Logo, and other marks indicated on our website are our trademarks. Our trademarks and trade dress may not be used in connection with any product or service that is not ours, in any manner that is likely to cause confusion, or in any manner that disparages or discredits us. All other trademarks not owned by us that appear on our site are the property of their respective owners, who may or may not be affiliated with, connected to, or sponsored by us. 8. AVAILABILITY AND DELIVERY We will endeavour to deliver your Products within the delivery times as set out in the Order Confirmation or, if no delivery date is specified, then within a reasonable time of the date of the Order Confirmation, unless there are exceptional circumstances. If a Product is found to be incorrectly addressed via email or otherwise by us then we will be responsible for the re-delivery, replacement or refunding of the Product. If you are found to have given an incorrect or insufficient address or email, then we will not refund or resend the product and all responsibility for correcting the delivery information will be borne by you. 9. RISK AND TITLE 9.1 Use of the Products will be at your risk from the time of delivery. 9.2 You do not obtain or acquire any title in or ownership of the Products. Your license and right to use the Products will only arise when we receive full payment of all sums due in respect of the Products. You are granted a limited, non-exclusive license to use the Product on a non-commercial, one time basis for each individual Product purchased. 10. PRICE AND PAYMENT 10.1 The price of any Products will be as quoted on our site from time to time, except in cases of obvious error. 10.2 These prices do not include the Goods and Services Tax (GST). 10.3 Prices are liable to change at any time, but changes will not affect orders in respect of which we have already sent you an Order Confirmation. 10.4 Our site contains a variety of Products and it is always possible that, despite our best efforts, some of the Products listed on our site may be incorrectly priced. If a Product's correct price is higher than the price stated on our site, we will normally, at our discretion, either contact you for instructions before delivering the Product, or reject your order and notify you of such rejection. 10.5 We are under no obligation to provide the Product to you at an incorrect (lower) price, even after we have sent you an Order Confirmation, if the pricing error is obvious and unmistakable and could have reasonably been recognised by you as a mis-pricing. 10.6 Payment for all Products must be by credit card or PayPal. We accept payment with Visa or MasterCard or any credit or debit card we deem acceptable at the time of payment. We will not charge your credit or debit card until we despatch your order. In exceptional circumstances where credit or debit card payments are not possible, payments may be made via regular banking channels. Where our Products are made available to you on a subscription basis we will debit your card in advance of delivering or making our Products available to you. 11. OUR REFUND POLICY 11.1 The Products constitute digital products, including videos, and opened software or Products cannot be returned. 11.2 If applicable, we will usually refund any money received from you using the same method originally used by you to pay for your purchase. 12. OUR LIABILITY 12.1 To the maximum extent permitted by law and save for the express written terms in this Agreement, all other express or implied terms, conditions, warranties, statements, assurances and representations in relation to the Goods or arising from this Agreement are expressly excluded. If any of the exclusions or limitations set out in this clause are declared illegal or void or if there has been a breach of a term, condition, warranty, statement or assurance which cannot be excluded by this Agreement, then, to the extent permitted by law, our entire liability and your exclusive remedy is limited to, at our discretion, the replacement of the goods or the supply of equivalent goods. 12.2 To the maximum extent permitted by law our liability for losses you suffer as a result of us breaching this agreement is strictly limited to the purchase price of the Product you purchased including any losses which are a foreseeable consequence of us breaching the agreement. Losses are foreseeable where they could be contemplated by you and us at the time your order is accepted by us. 12.3 We are not responsible for indirect losses (even if we are aware of the possibility of such loss or if such loss was otherwise foreseeable) however caused and on any theory of liability, including without limitation, contract or tort (including negligence or otherwise) arising during and/or as a result of our performance or non-performance of this Agreement, such indirect losses including but not limited to: (a) loss of income or revenue (b) loss of business or business interruption (c) loss of profits or contracts (d) loss of anticipated savings (e) loss of data (f) loss of data, or (g) waste of management or office time however arising (h) or any form of consequential loss, and whether caused by tort (including negligence), breach of contract or otherwise, even if foreseeable.; provided that this clause 12.3 shall not prevent claims for loss of or damage to your tangible property that fall within the terms of clause 12.1 or clause 12.2 or any other claims for direct financial loss that are not excluded by any of categories (a) to (h) above. 12.4 Where you buy any Product from a third-party seller through our site, the seller's individual liability will be set out in the seller's terms and conditions. 13. WRITTEN COMMUNICATIONS Applicable laws require that some of the information or communications we send to you should be in writing. When using our site, you accept that communication with us will be mainly electronic. We will contact you by e-mail or provide you with information by posting notices on our website. For contractual purposes, you agree to this electronic means of communication and you acknowledge that all contracts, notices, information and other communications that we provide to you electronically comply with any legal requirement that such communications be in writing. This condition does not affect your statutory rights. 14. NOTICES All notices given by you to us must be given to Benchmark Education Solutions at 326 Henley Beach Road, Underdale, SA 5032. We may give notice to you at either the e-mail or postal address you provide to us when placing an order, or in any of the ways specified in clause 13 above. Notice will be deemed received and properly served immediately when posted on our website, 24 hours after an e-mail is sent, or three days after the date of posting of any letter. In proving the service of any notice, it will be sufficient to prove, in the case of a letter, that such letter was properly addressed, stamped and placed in the post and, in the case of an e-mail, that such e-mail was sent to the specified e-mail address of the addressee. For contractual purposes, you consent to receive communications from us electronically and you agree that all agreements, notices, disclosures and other communications that we provide to you electronically satisfy any legal requirement that such communications be in writing. This condition does not affect your statutory rights. 15. TRANSFER OF RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS 15.1 The contract between you and us is binding on you and us and on our respective successors and assigns. 15.2 You may not transfer, assign, charge or otherwise dispose of a Contract, or any of your rights or obligations arising under it, without our prior written consent. 15.3 We may transfer, assign, charge, sub-contract or otherwise dispose of a Contract, or any of our rights or obligations arising under it, at any time during the term of the Contract. 16. EVENTS OUTSIDE OUR CONTROL 16.1 We will not be liable or responsible for any failure to perform, or delay in performance of, any of our obligations under a Contract that is caused by events outside our reasonable control (Force Majeure Event). 16.2 A Force Majeure Event includes any act, event, non-happening, omission or accident beyond our reasonable control and includes in particular (without limitation) the following: (a) Strikes, lock-outs or other industrial action. (b) Civil commotion, riot, invasion, terrorist attack or threat of terrorist attack, war (whether declared or not) or threat or preparation for war. (c) Fire, explosion, storm, flood, earthquake, subsidence, epidemic or other natural disaster. (d) Impossibility of the use of railways, shipping, aircraft, motor transport or other means of public or private transport. (e) Impossibility of the use of public or private telecommunications networks. (f) The acts, decrees, legislation, regulations or restrictions of any government. 16.3 Our performance under any Contract is deemed to be suspended for the period that the Force Majeure Event continues, and we will have an extension of time for performance for the duration of that period. We will use our reasonable endeavours to bring the Force Majeure Event to a close or to find a solution by which our obligations under the Contract may be performed despite the Force Majeure Event. 17. WAIVER 17.1 If we fail, at any time during the term of a Contract, to insist upon strict performance of any of your obligations under the Contract or any of these terms and conditions, or if we fail to exercise any of the rights or remedies to which we are entitled under the Contract, this shall not constitute a waiver of such rights or remedies and shall not relieve you from compliance with such obligations. 17.2 A waiver by us of any default shall not constitute a waiver of any subsequent default. 17.3 No waiver by us of any of these terms and conditions shall be effective unless it is expressly stated to be a waiver and is communicated to you in writing. 18. SEVERABILITY If any of these terms and conditions or any provisions of a Contract are determined by any competent authority to be invalid, unenforceable or unenforceable in any extent, such term, condition or provision will to that extent be severed from the remaining terms, conditions and provisions which will continue to be valid to the fullest extent permitted by law. 19. ENTIRE AGREEMENT 19.1 These terms and conditions and any document expressly referred to in them represent the entire agreement between us in relation to the subject matter of any Contract and supersede any prior agreement, understanding or arrangement between us, whether oral or in writing. 19.2 We each acknowledge that, in entering into a Contract, neither of us has relied on any representation, undertaking or promise given by the other or implied from anything said or written in negotiations between us prior to such Contract except as expressly stated in these terms and conditions. 19.3 We intend to rely upon these terms and conditions and any document expressly referred to in them in relation to the subject matter of any Contract. While we accept responsibility for statements and representations made by our duly authorised agents, please make sure you ask for any variations from these terms and conditions to be confirmed in writing. 20. OUR RIGHT TO VARY THESE TERMS AND CONDITIONS 20.1 We have the right to revise and amend these terms and conditions from time to time to reflect changes in market conditions affecting our business, changes in technology, changes in payment methods, changes in relevant laws and regulatory requirements and changes in our system's capabilities. 20.2 You will be subject to the policies and terms and conditions in force at the time that you order products from us, unless any change to those policies or these terms and conditions is required to be made by law or governmental authority (in which case it will apply to orders previously placed by you), or if we notify you of the change to those policies or these terms and conditions before we send you the Order Confirmation (in which case we have the right to assume that you have accepted the change to the terms and conditions, unless you notify us to the contrary within seven working days of receipt by you of the Products). 21. LAW AND JURISDICTION Contracts for the purchase of Products through our site and any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with them or their subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) will be governed by the law of the State of South Australia. Any dispute or claim arising out of or in connection with such Contracts or their formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) shall be subject to the non-exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of South Australia. If so, you've probably heard of the Occupational English Test (OET), a critical examination for healthcare professionals. Among the various sections of the OET, the writing component often poses a considerable challenge. Fear not, for in this article, we'll provide invaluable insights on free OET writing practice for doctors, complete with sample answers to help you ace this crucial test. Let's embark on this journey together, exploring the path to OET success. What is the OET? The OET, or Occupational English Test, is an internationally recognized assessment designed for healthcare professionals. It evaluates your English language proficiency in a medical context. It is widely accepted by regulatory healthcare bodies and institutions in English-speaking countries like the UK, Australia, and New Zealand. This test is your gateway to a successful medical career in these countries, and the writing sub-test is one of its critical components. The importance of OET Writing for Doctors As a doctor aiming to work abroad, your ability to communicate effectively in English is paramount. Your OET writing reflects your written communication skills in a medical setting. It tests your capacity to write clear, concise, and professional healthcare-related documents. Your proficiency in this section affects your OET scores and your daily performance as a doctor in an English-speaking environment. Understanding the OET Writing Sub-test The OET writing sub-test consists of a task replicating real-world writing tasks you may encounter in your medical career. In this test, you are presented with a case notes scenario, and your task is to write a letter, referral, or other medical document based on the information provided. The writing sub-test assesses your ability to organize and convey information, demonstrate clinical communication skills, and adhere to the principles of good medical writing. Free OET Writing Practice: Where to Begin To excel in OET writing, you need a structured approach to practice. Fortunately, various online resources and courses offer free OET writing practice materials. These resources include practice tasks, sample answers, and valuable feedback to help you improve your writing skills. Websites, such as www.oetpro.com, are excellent starting points. Crafting a Stellar OET Writing Task The OET writing task typically consists of a case notes scenario, which is the foundation of your response. Your task is to use the information provided to craft a coherent and concise medical document. Here's a step-by-step guide: Read and Analyze - Begin by thoroughly reading and understanding the case notes scenario. Pay attention to the patient's details, medical condition, and specific requirements. Plan Your Response - Outline your response, considering the structure and key points you want to include. A well-structured document is easier to understand and assess. Write with Clarity - Write your response clearly and concisely. Use appropriate medical terminology and professional language. Avoid jargon and colloquial expressions. Review and Edit - Review your response for grammar, spelling, and coherence after writing. Make necessary corrections to enhance the quality of your document. OET Writing Practice: The Key Elements When practicing OET writing, focus on these critical elements to refine your skills: Language Proficiency - Your language should be accurate, demonstrating a high level of English proficiency. Task Fulfillment - Ensure your response addresses all task components, including the patient's situation, medical condition, and other relevant details. Clarity and Conciseness - Write clearly and concisely, avoiding wordiness and ambiguity. Professionalism - Maintain a professional tone throughout your response, as in a medical setting. Sample OET Writing Answers: The Guide to Perfection One of the most effective ways to learn and improve your OET writing skills is by studying sample answers. Sample answers serve as guides demonstrating how to approach various writing tasks. Self-assessment and Feedback After practice, it's essential to assess your work critically. You can self-assess your writing based on the critical elements mentioned earlier. Additionally, seek feedback from peers, mentors, or online communities specializing in OET preparation. Constructive feedback is invaluable for identifying areas that need improvement. You get expert reviews and detailed assessments of your answers when you practice on www.oetpro.com. How to Make OET Writing Practice Engaging OET writing practice doesn't have to be dull. Engage with the material by imagining real-life patient scenarios. Put yourself in the shoes of a doctor dealing with these cases. This approach makes practice more interesting and helps you understand the real-world applications of your writing skills. The importance of Consistency in Practice Consistency is critical to success in OET writing. Set a practice schedule and stick to it. Regular practice enhances your writing skills, improves your speed, and boosts your confidence. Remember, Rome wasn't built in a day, nor is proficiency in OET writing. Overcoming Common OET Writing Challenges If English is not your first language, OET writing can be challenging for many doctors. Some common challenges include: Time Management - Practice managing your time efficiently, as you have a limited time to complete the task. Vocabulary - Work on expanding your medical vocabulary to express ideas more effectively. Grammar and Punctuation - Pay attention to grammar and punctuation to ensure your writing is error-free. Handwriting - If you're taking the handwritten OET, practice writing legibly, which is crucial for clarity. Conclusion In conclusion, mastering OET writing is essential for doctors aspiring to practice medicine in English-speaking countries. Effective OET writing practice is the key to success. Remember to start by understanding the test, using available resources, and engaging with sample answers. Regular practice, self-assessment, and constructive feedback are your allies in this journey. Stay consistent and believe in your ability to excel in the OET writing sub-test. Good luck! Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) Q1. What is the passing score for doctors who are writing the OET?
